

Canada's Pre-eminent Private Day and Boarding School

J. Addison School

Our graduates came from different parts of the world with starkly different academic and developmental needs. At J. Addison, we offer a robust educational framework which students can adhere to easily but also offers the flexibility that they can shape their high school experience the way they want it to be.

This is made possible by incorporating our Focus For Success® adaptive program into traditional curriculum. FFS provides a wide range of opportunities for students to explore interests and develop new skills, may they be academic-driven, social-driven, athletic-driven, leadership-driven, art-driven, or a combination of them all.

J. Addison is where students' dreams are acknowledged and potentials are realized.

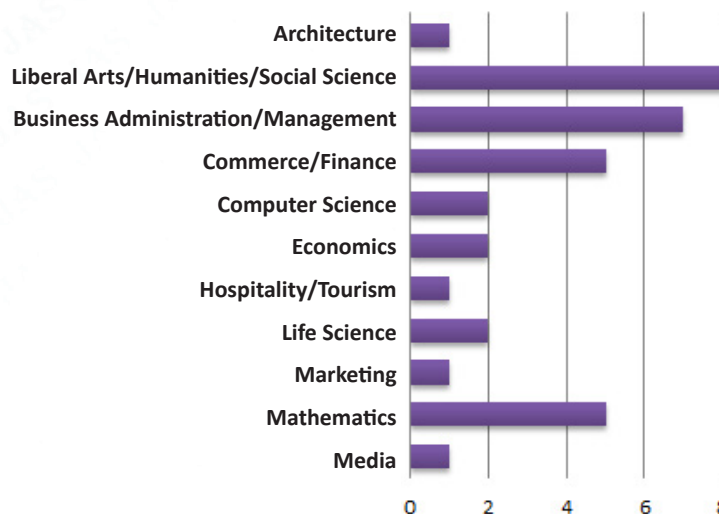

We are proud to be nurturing our tomorrow's thinkers and starting them on the path to success.

Congratulations to our Class of 2017!
