FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How many credits can I take in summer school?

One full credit per session/month. Summer credit courses are over (5) hours of study each day for approximately one month (110 hours). You can only take one credit course per month. If successful, you could potentially earn one credit in July and one in August.

What are the prerequisites for summer school courses?

Prerequisites are the same as regular day school programs. The specific eligibility requirements are listed under each program description in the Ministry of Education's common course calendar. School guidance counsellors can help students determine if they are eligible for a course.

Is there homework?

Yes. Summer school courses cover an entire year's work in a compressed period of time. Students must be prepared to allocate sufficient time to work at home every day. It is not advisable to pursue daily employment.

When are final report cards issued?

They will be issued on the last day of the course after examination review.

Is there a cost for textbooks?

Textbooks are provided for use during summer school at no cost. Students are responsible only for the replacement cost of lost, misplaced or damaged textbooks.
